executing spamassassin from sieve on some of the messages

Source: http://linux.derkeiler.com/Mailing−Lists/Debian/2004−10/3485.html

---

From: Vadim Kutsyy, PhD (vadim_at_kutsyy.com)
Date: 10/31/04

```
Date: Sat, 30 Oct 2004 21:18:26 −0700
To: debian−user@lists.debian.org
```

I am setting cyrus on sarge, and I want to send some (but not all) messages through spamassassin (smapc). in procmail I would just pipe it after I run all of the tests for lists, but what can I do in sieve? My understanding that sieve doesn't support pipe, is there any way I can execute spamassassin from sieve?

Thanks,

```
−−
To UNSUBSCRIBE, email to debian−user−REQUEST@lists.debian.org with a subject of "unsubscribe". Trouble? Contact listmaster@lists.debian.org
```