None of this is secret

<http://inquirer.philly.com/packages/somalia/nov16/rang16.asp> :

...18 Americans were dead and 73 were wounded...

...The Somalian toll was far worse. Reliable witnesses in the U.S. military and in Mogadishu now place the count at nearly 500 dead – scores more than was estimated at the time – among more than a thousand casualties. Many were women and children....

It's wierd what trivialities people focus on and bitch and bitch endlessly when there is a wealth of nastiness that slips out in the news but doesn't hold your attention...

There were news stories out in 1991 estimating the # of Iraqi deaths (approx 150,000). Last I heard Iraq 2 was about 35,000 w/ 5,000 civilian deaths. No wonder they're pissed off! But hey, my great-great granddaddy got his ass kicked by the U.S.A. so whatcha gonna do.
