Dear friends:

In case you haven't heard, Linux now has its own Dreamweaver web program and entirely free. You can get the first beta from:

<http://www.nvu.com/>

Would appreciate help with an error message I got in NVu:

<http://www.websher.net/temp/nvu2.png>

<http://www.websher.net/temp/nvu3.png>

<http://www.websher.net/temp/nvu4.png>

I was trying to publish a file to my web site at:

<http://www.websher.net/temp/>

I checked and the file did not upload. Instead I got the 553 error message. Any suggestions what could be wrong?

Thank you.

Benjamin
