

Re: Azureus and the TCP port 6881

Source: <http://linux.derkeiler.com/Mailing-Lists/Debian/2006-01/msg03514.html>

- From: Chris Howie <cdhowie@xxxxxxxxxxxxxx>
 - Date: Mon, 30 Jan 2006 18:28:27 -0500
-

Marcelo Chiapparini wrote:

> I've just installed Azureus as my .torrent client. During its > configuration the wizard checks for the 6881 TCP port reporting the > following message: "Testing port 6881... NAT error". I would like to > know how to open this port. I've surfed the list, googled the web > without success. I am wired to the Internet by an ADSL connection. I > wonder if this problem involves my Internet provider...
> Thanks in advance for any help!

- 1) Don't use port 6881. Pick something random in the 49152-65535 range.
- 2) Check your router/modem and make sure it's forwarding the port to your machine.

—
Chris Howie
<http://www.chrishowie.com>

-----BEGIN GEEK CODE BLOCK----- Version: 3.1
GCS/IT d(--) s:- a--->? C++(+++) $> UL++++ P++++ $ L+++>++++ E--- W++ N o++ K? w-- $ O M- V- PS--(---) PE++ Y+ PGP++ t+ 5? X-
R(+)>- tv-(--) b- DI+> D++ G>+++ e>+ h(---)>--- !r>+++ y->+++
-----END GEEK CODE BLOCK-----

Attachment: signature.asc
Description: OpenPGP digital signature