I've been typing on mine for a couple hours now and it's fantastic. The sound takes me back.

As I type this, Beethoven is (lightly) thundering out of my speakers. Clickity-clack does *not* go well with good music

And once you adjust to an ever-so-slightly-different key spacing, it's a breeze. I swear I'm typing faster with fewer mistakes. And definitely less fatigue.

Finding an old one lying around would definitely be a score.

They only weigh about 5 pounds, why not get a ps/2-usb adaptor and carry one with the laptop?
