Since one of Debian's priorities is our users, I'd like to see a "bits from the users" on d-d-a (debian-devel-announce). I also had the thought of a separate email for developers only on d-p (debian-private) and perhaps a presentation at DebConf 8 in August. So, I'm gathering your thoughts for these mails and the possible presentation.

In addition, if you are a new Debian contributor, or interested in becoming a new Debian contributor, or interacting with new Debian contributors, it would be great if you could send me your thoughts after reading this message:

Please send your thoughts on that to pabs-survey-nm-2008@xxxxxxxxxxx
