We (the -stable team) are announcing the release of the 2.6.16.1 kernel.

The diffstat and short summary of the fixes are below.

I'll also be replying to this message with a copy of the patch between 2.6.16 and 2.6.16.1, as it is small enough to do so.

The updated 2.6.16.y git tree can be found at:
<rsync://rsync.kernel.org/pub/scm/linux/kernel/git/stable/linux-2.6.15.y.git>

Oops, that should be:

<rsync://rsync.kernel.org/pub/scm/linux/kernel/git/stable/linux-2.6.16.y.git>

sorry about that...

Hm, we shouldn't be using "rsync" as part of a git url these days.
What's the recommended way of writing kernel.org git tree addresses now?

thanks,
