Hi Sunny,

Wow, that's quite a few errors! I use Audacity and it is really a wonderful program. From the looks of these errors, may I offer a suggestion? I'd go to <http://audacity.sourceforge.net/> as a start. There are on-line docs, an faq, a couple of community forums and even a mailing list -- which, btw, is pretty active and seems to be closely monitored by the developers. The mailing list sign-up is at: <http://lists.sourceforge.net/lists/listinfo/audacity-users>

I'm recommending this because, in addition to resolving the installation problem, you'll probably get some great help with whatever project you're working on.

HTH & regards,

- Carl
