Please dont flame me on this...My one friend has just become a boss and now she has to give a speach to all her employees, and doesn't know what to say so she came to me, and i really dont know. Please if anyone can help out. I would really appreciate it.

She wants to do a speech on kdm boot problems?

You've jumped in halfway through a thread, and you haven't given any indication on what topic this speech needs to be, talking about kdm boot problems doesn't seem to be the right topic for a speech to employees by a new boss... ;-)
