

Re: ftp install : failed to connect to ftp server

Source: <http://linux.derkeiler.com/Newsgroups/alt.os.linux.suse/2005-02/1927.html>

From: JM Remacle (jmremacleNOSPAM_at_tiscali.be)

Date: 02/14/05

Date: Mon, 14 Feb 2005 20:15:10 +0100

Tom Goodman a écrit :

> Tom F. wrote:

>

>> OK, I think I understand what you are saying. Please let me know if I >> understand you correctly.

>>

>> When running SuSE, do you connect to the internet during bootup or >> after? It seems like after.

>>

>> When you connect, you need a user name and password to log into your >> isp?

>>

>> Obviously, you will have to find some way to log into your isp before >> installation can begin. I'm sure this is possible, but I have no idea >> how do do that. Maybe someone else has an idea.

>>

>> Sorry I can't be of more help.

>> Tom F.

>>

> Since you must be connected WHEN you boot with the SuSE cd or boot > disks, you need an ISP connection which is always on. ADSL is one such.

> Dialup is no good I think, because if you reboot the machine the > connection will be broken and will not be re-made until you are back in > windows or some other operating system which has an autodialling method.

> The SuSE linux ftp installer does not have such an autodialler.

What a pity !

It relies upon an internet connection with DHCP/DNS already being present.

> That is provided by a typical broadband modem or modem/router > combination. I use a D-Link modem. It is connected permanently to my ISP > and it makes no difference if my computer is on or off or even > removed physically. So when booting into the SuSE installer the ISP > connection is there ready to be used.

I have an adsl ethernet speedtouch alcatel modem but the the modem is not always on, unfortunately in the present situation.

If someone can tell me how i can have it permanently i am happy...

>

alt.os.linux.suse: Re: ftp install : failed to connect to ftp server

- > You would find dial up to be terribly slow and expensive. Perhaps a week
- > to download. Better to buy the package. Or have a trial broadband
- > connection fpr ftp-ing SuSE...

when on my connection works very very well.

JM

> Tom