

Re: Fedora Core 2 (FC2) and sis 7012 sound card error

Source: <http://linux.derkeiler.com/Newsgroups/comp.os.linux.setup/2004-08/0731.html>

From: Alberto Gomez (algomu_at_ya.com)

Date: 08/26/04

Date: Thu, 26 Aug 2004 22:59:00 +0200

Nico Kadel-Garcia wrote:

> "Alberto Gomez" <algomu@ya.com> wrote in message > news:cgj3ik$8dm$1@news.ya.com...

>

>> Help me!!! :)

>>

>> My sound card don't works in a FC2. When I boot my system and after >> login this windows gives the welcome:

>>

>> #####

>> Sound server informational message:

>> Error while initializing the sound driver:

>> device: /dev/dsp can't be opened for playback (No such file or directory)

>> The sound server will continue, using the null output device.

>> #####

>

>

> The driver may have been renamed or wildly re-arranged with the 2.6 kernel.

> You might benefit from running new "system-config-soundcard" utility to see > if it's easily recognized and used.

>

>

This is the result of execute de configuratin from console, it recognices my Silicon Integrated Systems sound card but I can't hear test.

```
[root@algomu root]# system-config-soundcard
```

```
Simple mixer control 'PCM',0
```

```
Capabilities: pswitch pswitch-joined
```

```
Playback channels: Mono
```

```
Mono: Playback [on]
```